Bio

Jill Andrews is a Nashville-based artist known for her genre-blending, emotionally rich songwriting. A founding member of The Everybodyfields and co-creator of the duo Hush Kids with Peter Groenwald, she's spent nearly two decades crafting bold, melodic music influenced by artists like Joni Mitchell, Diana Ross, The Beatles, and St. Vincent. Her songs have been featured on major TV shows including Grey's Anatomy, This Is Us, and Wynonna Earp (for which she wrote the theme). Her latest EP, Big Feelings, was released on March 27, 2025.
