Bio

Johnny Iguana is the composer of the original score for the hit FX/Hulu series “The Bear,” alongside his partner JQ. Originally from Philadelphia, he moved to Chicago in 1994 after being hired by blues legend Junior Wells. Johnny has since performed on GRAMMY-nominated albums and recorded with icons including Buddy Guy, Mick Jagger, and Keith Richards.

A 2021 Blues Music Award nominee for Piano Player of the Year, Johnny released his debut as a leader, “Johnny Iguana’s Chicago Spectacular!” on Delmark Records. Beyond the blues, he has led diverse projects ranging from the cult favorite “oh my god” to his current “garage cabaret” band, the Claudettes. Whether touring globally or composing for television, Johnny is recognized for his distinctive, rhythmic style and overdriven organ tones. Learn more at JohnnyIguana.com or TheClaudettes.com.
