Bio

Even by the standards of an internationally renowned DJ and producer, 2024 was a busy year for Samantha Poulter aka Logic1000. Off the back of a string of critically acclaimed singles and EPs she released Mother – her long awaited debut album, to widespread acclaim which included gracing the cover of NME, being named DJ's 'Album of the Month', delivering a sensational Crack Mix, Boiler Room session, Radio 1 'Future Artists' mixtape and more. She also released mother ;;~ rebirth – its accompanying EP which featured Empress Of, Vagabon and Vv Pete, as well as being tapped for remixes for the likes of Dua Lipa, Shygirl and more. In amongst this she launched and hosted Therapy, her own podcast with guests including Jayda G, Aluna, Anna Luneo and Jamz Supernova, and toured across three continents, including making her Glastonbury debut. All this while remaining a staunch activist and a fiercely dedicated mother to her still new daughter. Learn more at <https://www.logic1000.com>. 🔗
