Bio

Notable Music Co. is an independent music publishing company founded in 1962 by Songwriters Hall of Fame inductee, jazz musician, and Broadway composer Cy Coleman. Rooted in a legacy of creativity and independence, Notable has championed songwriters and composers across genres for more than six decades.

Recent company highlights include Dagger Polyester's new album Perversion For Profit (produced by Chris Robinson of The Black Crowes), the 20th-anniversary vinyl release of Tift Merritt's Tambourine with a companion album Time & Patience, and Rosanne Cash's exhibit Time Is A Mirror on view at the Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum.

More than six decades since its founding, Notable remains true to its name: a home for timeless songs and the artists who create them. Learn more at www.notablemusic.net.
